As a Principal of Perspectus' Historic Architecture Studio, Elizabeth Corbin Murphy is dedicated to preservation and restoration technology and design. Her specialized talents often overlap with the academic, government, hospitality, and healthcare market sectors. As past president of AIA Ohio and past chair of the AIA National Historic Resources Committee, Elizabeth is a strong advocate for the architectural profession. She serves as a Professional Peer for the GSA Design Excellence and First Impressions programs and frequently speaks at historic preservation conferences.

With over a decade of professional historic architectural experience, Alice Sloan's career consists of working closely with the State Historic Preservation Office and the National Park Service in the preparation of National Register nominations for State and Federal Historic Tax Credits. She can contribute to any phase of a project, but she has expansive knowledge regarding preventive architectural conservation, which she uses to prepare restoration and preservation plans, technical building assessments and historic community design guidelines with Perspectus Architecture.

Barbara Powers is the Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer and Department Head for Inventory and Registration for the State Historic Preservation Office of the Ohio History Connection. Barb has 40 years of experience with historic survey and the National Register of Historic Places programs in Ohio.

Petra Knapp is a Survey & National Register Manager in the State Historic Preservation Office. Before joining the Inventory & Registration team Petra was a Senior Architectural Historian for GAI Consultants, Inc. and earlier served as an AmeriCorps Community Survey Member at Cleveland Restoration Society.
